

PETER CHOI

Peter has lived in San Bruno for the past thirty years and has been a successful Professional Golf Instructor for the last fourteen years. He graduated from the Korean Athletic University and possesses all around athletic skill such as being a master in the martial arts of Judo and Tae Kwon Do. He obtained his teaching credential from the US Golf Teachers federation when he was forty four years old.

In 1997, Peter opened the International Golf Academy and many players, from beginners to high skill players can attest to his quality instruction and helpfulness to develop and improve anyone's golf game. Many of his students of his youth program have gone on to excel on their high school golf teams. Peter has won medals in many tournaments including World Journal Open in 2008.

Peter feels that the fundamentals of the swing are the most important factor to success to the higher level. He always communicates through hands on instruction to each student until they obtain the skill perfectly. His instruction is simple but is very realistic in the golf field. He understands the mechanics of the swing but most importantly knows how to teach in simple ways.

You can contact Peter directly or call 650-759-3351

Email: golfchoi@hanmail.net