

Kevin Hyun is originally from Korea and has been teaching at the San Bruno Golf Center since 2010. He is an excellent player who is a five time Korean Amateur winner.

As a teacher, he has been in the Bay Area since 2005. During that time, he has written articles for the Korean Weekly Magazine.

He does not try to fit the student into one type of swing.

Kevin teaches students to develop the most powerful swing for them. That way, they can repeat the same motion.

He says “Many people try to copy someone else’s swing, instead of understanding their own.”

Kevin is available both during the week and on weekend, and you can contact him at (415) 335-3830 to schedule a lesson.
